Dear Shareholder:

Afognak Native Corporation ("ANC") encourages all shareholders to complete a Testamentary Disposition Form (TDF). The TDF allows you to designate who will receive your ANC stock upon your death. The TDF is optional, and you are not required to complete a TDF. However, by completing the TDF, you can avoid disputes as to who will receive your stock. The attached TDF applies only to ANC stock. The TDF is merely a simple method for disposition of your shares. If you want to make a more complicated share disposition, such as a trust, please see your attorney.

Please remember that by completing the TDF, it will supersede any disposition of ANC stock you have made within any prior will(s). This TDF should not impact the future disposition of any other property within any prior will(s) which is not ANC stock.

Effective June 1, 2010, disposition of shares will be done in whole shares only. Fractional shares will not be further divisible. For example, if you own 100 shares and wish to leave your shares equally to three family members, the stock will be split as follows: 33, 33, and 34 shares by random drawing. If you own fractional shares (e.g., 33.333) and wish to leave your shares equally to three individuals, the shares would be split as follows: 11, 11 and 11.333 shares by random drawing.

Please take notice, that ANC discloses to all beneficiaries the final share transfers through inheritance.

Please submit your completed and notarized TDF to:

PART A: Disposition of ANC Stock

List your designated beneficiary(s), with the address, date of birth, gender, phone number, email, social security number, and relationship to you (e.g., your sister, half-brother, daughter, nephew). Enter the number of ANC shares you wish each person to receive. If one person is to receive all your shares, you may write "All." You may divide your shares with as many individuals as you wish; simply add additional pages if necessary.

Effective June 1, 2010, disposition of stock must be done in whole shares only. Fractional shares will not be further divisible. For example; if you own 100 shares and wish to leave your shares equally to three individuals, the stock will be split as follows: 33, 33, and 34 shares. If you own fractional shares (e.g. 33.333) and wish to leave your shares equally to three individuals, the shares would be split as follows: 11, 11 and 11.333 shares.

PART B: Disposition of Additional Stock Acquired / Alternative Scenarios

B.1: If you receive additional shares after this TDF is executed, you can designate that the additional shares be distributed in a different manner than you outlined in Part A.

B.2: If you have additional children, either through natural birth or adoption, after this TDF is finalized, you can choose to have those individuals, included in the settlement of your ANC shares. If you do not complete this section, ANC will assume your intent was to check the "yes" box.

B.3: If an individual(s) identified in your TDF predecease you in death, you can identify how the shares that were to go to the deceased individual(s) should be redistributed.

B.4: Stock inherited by a minor at the time of the inheritance must be held by a custodian until the minor reaches the age of majority (eighteen (18) years of age). If you do not designate a custodian, Alaska State law establishes the following priority for the appointment of a custodian:

- c) an adult member of the minor's family, which includes step-parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, whether of whole or half blood or by adoption, as well as members of the family with whom the minor has customarily lived. The custodianship will terminate at eighteen (18) years of age. AS § 13.46.085.
